

Lifetime Achievement Award Rubric

Reviewer Initials:

Presentation:

CATEGORY	8-10	5-7	3-4
Achievements - Provide a list of outstanding lifetime achievements of the nominee. This may include innovation in clinical practice, education, professional service, patient relations, advocacy, preceptorship (student or sonographer) and/or research.	The nominee has 5+ lifetime achievements relevant to the sonography profession.	The nominee has 3 or 4 lifetime achievements relevant to the sonography profession.	The nominee has 1 or 2 lifetime achievements relevant to the sonography profession.
Contribution and Impact - Provide a description of the nominee's meaningful contribution to the sonography profession. The description details the degree and value of the contribution and how it impacts the sonography profession on a community, provincial, national and/or international level.	The nominee has made exceptional contributions to the sonography profession. The nominee has contributed substantial time and expertise to drive innovation in the field of sonography. The nominee has made a strong impact on the profession on a community, provincial, national and/or international level.	The nominee has made a significant contribution to the sonography profession. The nominee demonstrates interest in contributing to the field of sonography and has made a made a significant impact on the field of sonography on a community or provincial level.	The nominee has provided a few contributions to the sonography profession, although they have not significantly impacted the field of sonography.

Leadership - Describe how the nominee demonstrates exceptional leadership and how their work inspires others to pursue excellence.	The nominee demonstrates a high level of leadership in the field of sonography. The nominee is well known for advancing their skills and encouraging the advancement of skills in others.	The nominee demonstrates good leadership skills. The nominee shows interest in advancing their skills and has had some success engaging others in the field of sonography.	The nominee demonstrates some leadership skills but does not inspire others to advance their knowledge and skills.
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

0-2	Score out of 10
The nominee has not demonstrated lifetime achievements relevant to the sonography profession.
It is not clear from the description that the nominee's contributions have impacted the sonography profession.

The nominee does not demonstrate clear leadership skills.
-----------------------------------------------------------	--

Total 0

Percentage 0