What is a Hill Day?

A Hill Day at Canada's Parliament is a strategic advocacy event organized by associations to engage directly with legislators, political staff, and government officials. Association representatives have a series of meetings with a broad range of government stakeholders.

future collaboration and advocacy.

Échographie®

Canada